

MST: 351/651 Project Rubric

Outstanding (85-95 points)

- The paper has a clear introduction previewing the topic.
- The main points are clearly stated and well organized.
- There is a clear conclusion summarizing the topic.
- The mathematics is correct.
- The mathematics goes beyond the content of the previous work.
- The diagrams are clear and accurate and integrated into the report.
- The level of presentation is appropriate for the audience.
- Sources are properly cited and a correct bibliography is included.
- The paper uses correct grammar and spelling.

Good (75-85 points)

- The paper has an introduction and conclusion.
- The paper lacks some organization.
- Some main points are not clear.
- The mathematics has only minor errors.
- The level of presentation is almost always appropriate for the audience.
- Diagram lack some clarity or are not integrated into the paper.
- Sources are given and bibliography is included.
- The paper has only minor difficulties with grammar or spelling.

Minimal (65-75 points)

- The paper lacks an introduction and conclusion.
- The paper is poorly organized.
- Main points are not clear.
- The mathematics has significant errors.
- Diagrams are unclear or are not included.
- The level of presentation does not match the audience.
- No sources are given or the bibliography is missing.
- The paper has significant difficulties with grammar or spelling.