Made to See, Step by Step

The hearing ear, and the seeing eye,
Yahweh has made even both of them.— Proverbs 20:12

[Mark 8:22-26, Bethsaida] He came to Bethsaida. They brought a blind man to him, and begged him to touch him. He took hold of the blind man by the hand, and brought him out of the village. When he had spit on his eyes, and laid his hands on him, he asked him if he saw anything.

He looked up, and said, “I see men; for I see them like trees walking.”

Then again he laid his hands on his eyes. He looked intently, and was restored, and saw everyone clearly. He sent him away to his house, saying, “Don’t enter into the village, nor tell anyone in the village.”

He asked him if he saw anything

1. Why did Jesus ask if he saw anything? Shouldn't he know if he healed him completely?
2. What has Jesus done for you? Is there still more he could do? Why such “piecemeal”?
3. Dear Jesus, my small faith only allows you to give me things in pieces, but you build...
