1. Consider the vector function \( \mathbf{F}(x, y, z) = \frac{x}{|x|^3} \). By direct computation, show that it has no curl for \( x \neq 0 \).

Then, by integrating it over a small spherical volume, show that it also has no curl at \( x = 0 \).